

"Tippy Grit asks all little acorn children to place this picture book close to where they sleep. As they sleep their minds will be filled with the wonder of life before them. The Wizardly Watch Tower will guard them as they sleep, the Sad and Serious Lantern will help them think, the Money Spiders and Moon Angels will fill their gentle hearts with the joys of growing up; from a little acorn into a mighty oak."

By Frederick C Webb

“The Sad and Serious Lantern is a Magic Chinese Lantern that shows a light inside our heads and helps us all to think”

This ancient Lantern was found in an overgrown garden at the end of Ice House Road Stowmarket. It was found by President Fox, when he picked it up it tilted and gave off a blue beam. Fox followed the beam and it lead him to Lantern County.

For years it stood on my desk, but one day the Man in the Moon telephoned me, he told me to put my paw on it, because when I did the world would make better sense. He then sent Miss Money Spider with a message; if I placed the Lantern on my paw and she sat on my nose, it would take us to any planet in the universe in an instant; and it does.

"Greetings Happy Acorn Children, this is the 'Wall Book' for you all to hang over your beds. It sends magic messages that will help you all have happy dreams. Great news, my twin sister Grace Grit has come to live with us and will be my equal partner in the Happy Acorn Club"

Tippy Grit

"Hello little acorn children,
I am so pleased my twin brother Tippy has invited me to share his club and help to make you happy. Two heads are better than one; shared problems halved and shared joys doubled.
 $1d + 1d = 2dx$; that is the equation."

Grace Grit

Tippy is the short name for 'Thought Penny Puppy'; he does ask a lot of questions. These twins are the grandchildren of Lord Goodwords Grit, the family poet; watch out for his rhymes, poems, and maybe songs. (In Lantern County music is made by tadpoles in lines). The X factor in the equation is that two or more brains give four or more thoughts; every happy acorn child needs a pal to play with.

“The Man in the Moon,
attended by the parent
angels Ebb and Flo, shovels down loads
of Moon Dust”

Moon Dust is the greatest magic, it comes from all over the universe and carries pictures, images, and ideas from other life on other planets. Perhaps each tiny grain is a disc or a chip that plays inside children’s heads as they sleep; it is knowledge from outside the planet Earth. Miss Money Spider and her 1000’s of friends play in this dust, and this often gives them one ‘good thought’ to bring down as a ‘daydream’. If a little spider lands on you, say ‘thank you’ and then give him a gentle puff of your warm breath to send him back up into the sky.

“The morning shift are busy sending up bags of grit to be gathered by the Money Spiders. It is tied to balloons filled with magic gas”

A shift of miners, organised by President Fox, are busy sending Grit up in the sky to be gathered by the hordes of Money Spiders. There are several shifts and all are pleased to do this hard work that adds 'Grit' to children's dreams, listen to President Fox; "When this Grit is added to Moon Dust, their dreams put sunshine in children's hearts that will last forever."

What a lovely message from Fox.

"This is fun time for the 1000's of boy and girl money spiders. Down comes the magic moon dust, up comes the magnetic grit. They mix them together for dreams that will last forever"

"Spiders are too small and too far up to see; but we can feel the pleasure and fun these tiny creatures get, all busy as bees making sure the dreams come with grit"

"We never see this work as a chore, we enjoy being a part in little human lives; effort no matter how small will always bring some pleasure somewhere"

"And when the moon dust and grit arrives, we Angels will give lots to children and a little to mum's and dad's; everyone needs a dream"

"The children of angels Ebb and Flo work hard to make sure every house gets a fair share of Moon Dust and Grit, dreams and courage. In case the Vicar has dozed off, there is one on the church"

"Now the plan is complete, all the hard work of the Grit miners, Man in the Moon, Money Spiders and Moon Angels means that every child will have a happy dream; some mum's and dad's too. New babies get a double dose; and new babies have two tiny Moon Angels to live with them forever. President Fox says that they teach them all about smell, taste, hearing, sight, and touch; the common senses"

“The Wizardly watch Tower keeps all children safe as they sleep”

“The Wizardly Watch Tower was my MI.5D, HQ where we saved the English Oak Tree from Dutch Oak Disease. It's new job is to watch over children as they sleep, snug and warm. The windows are lit by glow-worms supplied by President Fox. Gigga Lee Grit deletes harmful internet messages.

Frederick C Webb

“I may look like a gnarled old oak, but my acorns are fresh”

The Happy Acorn Club ‘Wall Book’

‘THE SEVEN PAGES OF WISDOM’

- ① The magic Lantern helps us to think.
- ② Tippy and Grace give us love and friendship.
- ③ The Man in the Moon sends down Dream Dust.
- ④ The Grit Miners send up Grit and courage.
- ⑤ Money spiders mix dreams with grit.
- ⑥ Moon Angels make sure every child gets an equal share of ‘Moon Dust and Grit’.
- ⑦ The ‘Wizardly Watch Tower’ keeps children safe as they sleep.

Canis de Hominus Amicus Super Estis. A man's best friend is his dog.

Lord Grit of Lantern County in Suffolk invites you to visit his family ‘Sit’, Kindred Hall; and meet his many relatives and friends on; Webb’s Wonderful Web’s

www.winstongrit.com | www.happyacornclub.com | www.plumtreefaith.com